“DIWALI FOR NEEDY”

Prayas Nashik Media Team

Nashik | Prayas Youth Forum and Social Research Foundation is a non-profit organization to promote and support educational and developmental efforts in India. ‘Prayas’ meaning endeavor. We are making an effort towards bridging the gap between India and Bharat (widely coined term for rural India) through contribution in different initiatives.

Diwali is considered to be the celebration of light, love and prosperity. Like last year, this year also volunteers of Prayas combined the spirit of Diwali and the 'Joy of Giving' by spreading the virtues of the festival through distributing the most delicacy of the festival i.e. Diwali faral to the needy people standing on streets begging for food and water. Five delicious food items in the form of faral were offered like Chivda, Motichur Ladoo, Nashik Famous Chivda, Shankalpali and Chakli.

Our volunteer once said, “It was a feeling of shame on his side on each Diwali when he used to look at beggars begging for food on this Festive and joyous day. That feeling of shame kicked him and boosted him to initiate this event”. No feeling in the world could be more special than that of bringing a smile on a face of person who is not able to eat at least one time food all because of his fate. We cannot change their fate but at least bring a small smile on his face.

Prayas major success for this event lies with the sponsors, as with a short time of notice, just with a small post we were able to achieve big amount for the event. Thanks to all volunteers and sponsors for making this event a grand success.
